

FSH Safety Training

Asbestos Awareness: Explains what asbestos is, where it is found and how to protect yourself.

Bloodborne Pathogens: Explains what to do if an employee is injured and there is blood and other body fluids in your workplace (For non-medical personnel).

Collateral Duty Safety Officer: (Two day course explaining the responsibilities needed to be a CDSO). Special additional duty assignment.

Confined Space: Requirements for practices and procedures for permit required confined space.

Hazard Communication: For employees who work with or are exposed to chemicals.

Job Hazard Analysis: Guides participant through a unique step-by-step process to identify job-specific hazards.

Lockout/Tagout (LOTO): How to keep from getting killed or injured by inadvertent release of energy.

Risk Management: A decision-making process to identify and control hazards.

Respiratory Protection: For users of respirators and fit testing.

Forklift Training: Initial and refresher training as required by OSHA regulation 1910.178.

Contact Richard Edges at 221-3857 or e-mail for further information.